the POWER of WOMEN

AN EVENING WITH GLENNON DOYLE

Author, Activist, Founder of Together Rising, and Host of the We Can Do Hard Things Podcast

Thursday, November 6, 2025
at The Indiana Roof Ballroom

Along with a heartfelt conversation, a ticket to Power of Women includes dinner and admittance to a pre-event networking reception. Proceeds from this event support Women's Fund and its mission to convene, invest, and advocate so all who identify as women or girls living in Central Indiana have an equitable opportunity to reach their full potential no matter their race, place, or identity.

This event promises not just to uplift spirits but also to spark meaningful change in the community. Join us for a night of empowerment, connection, and celebration, and be part of a movement that champions the potential of every woman and girl in our region!

Glennon Doyle is the CEO and Founder of Treat Media, an award-winning media company that makes art for humans who want to stay human. She is an author, podcaster, producer, and philanthropist. Her books include the #1 New York Times bestseller UNTAMED, which has sold more than three million copies; the #1 New York Times bestseller LOVE WARRIOR, an Oprah's Book Club selection; the New York Times bestseller CARRY ON, WARRIOR; and GET UNTAMED: The Journal. Glennon, named one of the "50 Most Powerful People in Podcasting," is co-host of the chart-topping podcast WE CAN DO HARD THINGS, which has received over a half billion plays. She is an executive producer of the Sundance award-winning film Come See Me in the Good Light. Glennon was Founder and President of Together Rising, a nonprofit organization which distributed more than $55M to women, families and children in crisis. Her most recent book, WE CAN DO HARD THINGS: Answers to Life's 20 Questions, created with Abby Wambach, Amanda Doyle and Treat Media, is being hailed as "the guidebook for being alive."
